

The Berlin Network of Labor Market Research (BeNA) presents:

Prof. Uta Schönberg, Ph.D.
University College London

"The Labor Market Effects of Immigration"

October 11-12, 2016

Venues:

HU Berlin and Hertie School of Governance

Distinguished Guest

Prof. Schönberg is Professor of Economics at the University College London. She received her education at the University of Hannover (Diplom) and the University College London (Ph.D.) and did her assistant professorship at the University of Rochester. Her research uses microeconomic methods to answer applied, policy-relevant questions in labor economics, in particular for questions concerning education and immigration.

Prof. Schönberg is also Co-Editor of the Journal of Labor Economics and on the editorial board of the Review of Economic Studies. Her research was published, among others, in the Quarterly Journal of Economics, the Journal of Economic Perspectives, and the Journal of Labor Economics. Her outstanding research agenda has also been recognized by several prestigious grants, among others, by the DFG and the ERC starting grant.

Program

Uta Schönberg will give three lectures and a research talk. The lectures will provide an overview of the research area. The research talk gives insights into a current research project.
