

Berlin Network of Labor Market Research (BeNA)

BeNA Labor Economics Workshop July 3, 2019, DIW Berlin

CALL FOR PAPERS

Deadline for submissions: May 15, 2019

Our one-day workshop provides young labor economists the chance to present and discuss their current research. It constitutes a forum to meet and exchange with fellow doctoral students, post-docs and professors from the field of labor economics. We are happy to announce that Analia Schlosser (Tel Aviv University) and Natalia Danzer (Freie Universität Berlin) will give keynote speeches and provide valuable feedback throughout.

We are looking forward to submissions from PhD students from Berlin and Brandenburg working on topics in labor economics from a theoretical, empirical or experimental perspective. Equally, we encourage the submission of work in early stages. All projects presented at the BeNA workshop will be considered for the BeNA Innovative Research Award in the amount of €200.

The workshop will take place in the friendly atmosphere of the DIW (German Institute for Economic Research) on July 3, 2019.

If you want to present your work, please submit an extended abstract or a draft of your paper by May 15, 2019, to workshop@labor-research.net. The decision on your submission will be communicated by June 5, 2019.

You are also very welcome to attend the workshop without presenting your work. Please register for the workshop via email: workshop@labor-research.net.
