PERSPECTIVES ON (UN-)EMPLOYMENT

12th interdisciplinary Ph.D. Workshop

Aims and Topics

The IAB's Graduate School (GradAB) invites young researchers who study topics in labor economics and sociology to its 12th interdisciplinary Ph.D. workshop "Perspectives on (Un-)Employment". The event provides an opportunity for graduate students to present their ongoing research and receive feedback from senior scholars working at the frontiers of their disciplines. We seek theoretical and empirical contributions to the field of labor market research. Your paper may cover topics such as:

- Labor supply, labor demand and unemployment
- Evaluation of labor market institutions and policies
- Wages and productivity
- Education, qualification and job tasks
- Inequality, poverty and discrimination
- Gender and family
- Migration and international labor markets
- Health and job satisfaction
- Technological change and digitization
- The impact of climate change on the labor market
- Methodology of labor market research

Keynote Speakers

- Professor David Card (University of California, Berkeley)
- Professor Arne L. Kalleberg (University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill)
