

WORKSHOP ON SOCIAL INSURANCE AND PUBLIC POLICIES

Barcelona, May 18-19, 2020

The workshop will focus on the analysis of social insurance systems. We invite submissions of empirical papers on the evaluation of policies that, directly or indirectly, affect social insurance systems such as sickness, disability and unemployment insurance as well as parental leave policies. In particular, the workshop will focus on behavioral responses to public policies with a special emphasis on labor supply, health and labor market outcomes of beneficiaries and their relatives.
