

First Hybrid IAB-Conference

Labour Market Transitions: Challenges for Public Policies and Research

In the light of Germany's EU Council Presidency in 2020, the Institute for Employment Research (IAB) is happy to announce an interdisciplinary hybrid labour market conference. This conference will focus on various topics concerning labour market transitions and the evaluation of policies that governments implement to smooth such transitions. The conference will feature about 40 scientific paper presentations with 10 minutes presentation time each. The conference also considers the relevant perspective of high-level actors engaged in the European labour market policy.

Scientific keynote speaker: Jutta Allmendinger | President of the WZB Berlin Social Science Center, and Christian Dustmann | University College London, Director of CReAM – Centre for Research and Analysis of Migration

Date: 7-9 September 2020

Venue on site: Nürnberg (Meistersingerhalle)

Online: The conference offers the opportunity to participate as an online guest. This online participation is free of charge, has no registration deadline, and you can join the conference at any point.
