About the Workshop

We are pleased to announce the 7th Potsdam PhD Workshop in Empirical Economics. The aim of the workshop is to give talented young researchers the opportunity to present and discuss their research and to study new developments in empirical economics.

Keynote

In his keynote, Imran Rasul will talk about “Field Experiments in Labour, Development and Public Economics”. Rasul is Professor of Economics at University College London (UCL). His research interests include labor, development, and public economics and his work has been published in leading journals such as the Journal of Political Economy, Quarterly Journal of Economics, Econometrica, and the Review of Economic Studies.

Participants

The 7th Potsdam PhD Workshop in Empirical Economics is open to 12–15 doctoral students and and postdoctorates who completed their dissertations no more than two years ago. Participants will be given the opportunity to present and discuss their own research and each paper will have an assigned discussant. We encourage all young researchers interested in empirical economics to apply.

Scientific Committee

Barbara Boggiano (University of Potsdam), Marco Caliendo (UP), Peter Haan (DIW), Katrin Huber (UP), Shushanik Margaryan (UP), Thomas Siedler (UP), Christian Traxler (Hertie School), Joschka Wanner (UP), Katharina Wrohlich (DIW and UP)

Submission

Please submit your CV and a paper (or an extended abstract) by May 31, 2021 to workshop@empwifo.uni-potsdam.de. There will be no workshop fees.
