

EVIDENCE-BASED ECONOMICS

Dear PhD students,

The Evidence-Based Economics (EBE) & CRC TRR 190 Summer School 2021

“Applied Microeconomics – Topics and Methods”

will again take place digitally in 2021. It will include two lecture series (approx. 16 hours of material) and three live Zoom sessions.

We are pleased to announce that our guest speakers for this year’s summer school are

Stephen Ryan (Washington U. St. Louis)

on Machine Learning in Health Economics

and

Jordi Blanes i Vidal (London School of Economics)

on Instrumental Variables

Program Schedule:

- Kick-off Zoom session: August 2nd, 15:00-16:30 CET
- Video-viewing period: August 3rd-August 22nd
- Q&A session w/ Prof. Ryan: August 23rd, 15:30 CET
- Q&A session w/ Prof. B.i.V.: August 24th, 15:30 CET

Participants are invited to briefly present own research projects in elevator-style presentations in the Q&A sessions (optional).

If you wish to sign up for this year’s EBE & CRC summer school, please send an e-mail to ebe@econ.lmu.de by June 10th, 2021.

The organizing team