

CALL FOR PAPERS:

PERSPECTIVES ON (UN-)EMPLOYMENT

15th interdisciplinary Ph.D. Workshop

Aims and Topics

The IAB's Graduate School (GradAB) and the FAU invites young researchers to its 15th interdisciplinary Ph.D. workshop "Perspectives on (Un-)Employment". The workshop provides an opportunity for graduate students to present their ongoing work in the field of theoretical and empirical labor market research and receive feedback from leading scholars in the discipline. We seek papers that cover any one of the following topics:

- Labor supply, labor demand and unemployment
- Evaluation of labor market institutions and policies
- Education, qualification and job tasks
- Inequality, poverty and discrimination
- Gender and family
- Migration and international labor markets
- Health and job satisfaction
- Technological change and digitization
- The impact of climate change on the labor market
- Applications of machine learning and big data in labor market research
- Survey methodology (in labor market research)
- Data quality (in labor market research)
- Innovative data collection methods

Keynote speakers

Professor Andrew Clark (Paris School of Economics)

Associate Professor Nadine Ketel (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)
