

Call for Papers

Bavarian Young Economists' Meeting

Virtual EBE/GRK Summer Meeting 2021

June 30 – July 2, 2021

We are pleased to announce the Bavarian Young Economists' Meeting taking place from June 30 to July 2, 2021, as a virtual conference. The general theme of the conference is Applied Microeconomics, including empirical as well as applied theory work. The Bavarian Young Economists' Meeting offers PhD students an opportunity to present their work, receive feedback and connect with peers from other departments worldwide.

Keynote Speakers

We are happy to announce

Michela Carlana

and

Noam Yuchtman

(Harvard Kennedy School)

(London School of Economics)

as our keynote speakers.

Submissions

We invite PhD students to submit full papers or extended abstracts (3-4 pages). Each paper presentation will be discussed by another participant.

Please apply via the following website no later than March 31, 2021.

"Apply here"

Acceptance notifications will be sent out by the end of April.

Best Paper Award

The best paper submitted and presented at the conference will be awarded a prize of EUR 300. The best papers will be presented in a plenary session.

Costs

There is no conference fee.

Further Information

The Bavarian Young Economists' Meeting is a joint initiative of the Evidence-Based Economics (EBE) and the Microeconomic Determinants of Labor Productivity Research Group (GRK 1928) Program that are affiliated with the Munich Graduate School of Economics (MGSE) at the Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich, the FAU Erlangen-Nuremberg, and the University of Regensburg.

More information about the conference is available on the official website:

WEBSITE

We look forward to your submissions and hope to welcome you to our virtual conference!

